

NJ's Do Not Call List is great. It is wonderful to be able to eat dinner with my family without the constant harrasment of telemarketers. I often work at home, prior to the do not call law, it was difficult with the frequent interruptions from various callers. Please do not change this law.